

AFRO-AMERICAN BARRISTER.

Messrs. Carter and King Win Laurels Before the Pennsylvania Bar—Examples of Race Progress.

[From Leslie's History of the Republican Party, Penna. Edition.]

William Justin Carter of Harrisburg, Penn. is the son of Edmund and Elizabeth (Reeves) Carter, and was born in Richmond, Va. on the 28th day of May 1866. He was educated in the public schools of his native state, and at Howard University in Washington, D. C., graduating from the law department of the latter institution with the degree of LL. B., on May 30 1892. In October of the same year he was licensed as an attorney and counselor at law by the Supreme Court of Virginia, and was subsequently submitted to the bar of the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel County, Md., and the Supreme Court of Baltimore City. From 1892 to June 1894 he was first assistant principal of the Stanton Public School of Annapolis, Md. Removing to Pennsylvania in 1894 Mr. Carter was admitted to the bar at Harrisburg on March 24, and has since practiced his profession in that city with marked success. As a lawyer he has developed legal ability of a high order, and among the younger members of the Harrisburg bar is an acknowledged leader.

He is counsel of the Baker Building and Loan Association of Harrisburg and local attorney for the Attorney's and Agencies Association of New York, for Early's Mercantile Agency of Philadelphia, and Chicago, and for the Commercial Union Advertising Company of Philadelphia. He has also been counsel in numerous important cases of foreign and domestic corporations, and in every capacity has won honor and distinction. Although an active and enthusiastic republican Mr. Carter has never aspired to or held a political office. He has taken however a prominent part in the politics of Dauphin County, and has taken the stump in nearly all of the important campaigns since 1894. He has the reputation of being a most effective speaker, one of the best in fact, in Harrisburg, and is often invited to deliver addresses in assemblies, before lyceums, and on memorial day and other public occasions.

As a lawyer he has been remarkably successful, and as a jury advocate he is especially regarded as a leader of unusual ability. He is a member of the Chosen Friends Lodge F. and A. M., and actively identified with many of the public fraternities and social organizations of Harrisburg, where he resides. Mr. Carter was married February 18th, 1894 to Elizabeth M. Allen, daughter of Rev. J. C. and Mary L. Allen of Baltimore, Md. Their children are Harlan Allen Carter and W. Justin Carter, Jr.

MR. R. S. KING.

Mr. R. S. King of the class of 1899 of Howard University Law school, having been admitted to the Indianapolis bar has settled permanently as an attorney at law. For the last three months he has resided in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where he has been associated with W. Justin Carter, Esq. of the Harrisburg bar and an alumnus of Howard University Law Department, class of 1892.

Mr. King has been studying in Mr. Carter's office the methods and procedure of practice, with a view to further qualify himself to meet the exigencies of his office in his field of labor. He has with Mr. Carter had the opportunity of assisting in the preparation of a great many cases involving delicate questions of law and practice. Recently he appeared in the courts of Harrisburg with Mr. Carter associated in a case against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company which case was settled very favorably to their clients. Mr. King has made many warm friends in Harrisburg who regretted very much to have him leave the capital city. He is favorably impressed with Pennsylvania as a field for a young attorney, as well as the West.

Mr. King's friends bespeak for him that with his native push, ability and industry will reap a glorious and profitable future. Mr. King is the youngest practitioner at the Indianapolis bar.

SUFFERED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

Cured Permanently by the American Catarrh Remedy, Pe-ru-na.

MR. AND MRS. J. O. ATKINSON, INDEPENDENCE, MO.

Mr. John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, says: "My wife had been suffering from a complication of diseases for 25 years.

"Her case had baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. She also suffered with general debility and paroxysms—sometimes as often as six or eight times a day. At this time she was passing through that most critical period in the life of woman—change of life.

"In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it has completely cured her. She firmly believes that she would have been dead only for these wonderful remedies.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which was of 25 years' standing, and at times I was almost past going. I commenced using Pe-ru-na according to your instructions, and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me.

"I have to say that your remedies do all you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Pe-ru-na is taken according to directions. Man-a-lin is a most wonderful medicine for chronic constipation."

Mr. A. F. Stern, Marine City, Mich., writes: "I was troubled with catarrh for three years, and tried almost every catarrh medicine I heard of. I went down to Delaware, O., to attend college, where I got one of your Almanacs, and saw another remedy for catarrh. I was almost discouraged with trying all kinds of medicine, but my room-mate told me that your medicine was all right, and so I tried it. After taking seven bottles according to directions, I was cured and felt like a new man. I recommend it to all who are suffering with this dreadful disease. It is the best medicine for catarrh. I owe my health to you."

Mrs. J. A. Bashor, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My health was completely broken down and had been for almost a year. I could not rest day or night, but suffered constantly untold misery. Tried remedy after remedy, but found no relief until Pe-ru-na was recommended to me by a friend. I have taken one and a half bottles and am today well and hearty. I shall always praise Pe-ru-na, for I feel it saved my life."

Mr. J. W. Draper, Gainsboro, Tenn., writes: "For many years I had been a continual sufferer from that dreadful disease, chronic catarrh. I gave up hopes of ever being relieved. I tried every remedy my friends recommended, but all in vain. Finally I took my bed. My friends had all given me up to die, believing me to be in the last stages of consumption. Having a bottle of Pe-ru-na in the room, I began to take it, and in a few days felt so well that I got up. I continued it, improving all the time, until I am now almost a sound man. Can do as hard a day's work as almost any man. This happened four years ago."

Mrs. Rachel A. Magaw, 67 West Jefferson street, Springfield, O., writes:

"Your Pe-ru-na is worth its weight in gold. I feel like a new woman. I can't praise it enough. I spent a great deal of money on doctors, but nothing ever did me any good until I sent to you and tried your Pe-ru-na. I now feel well of the catarrh, but I shall never be without Pe-ru-na, and shall tell all I see to try it, for I know it to be a sure cure for catarrh. I can't praise it enough for what it has done for me."

Catarrh is an American disease. Fully one-half of the people are afflicted more or less with it in some form. Previous to the discovery of Pe-ru-na, catarrh was considered well-nigh incurable. Since the introduction of Pe-ru-na to the medical profession thousands of cases are cured annually.

By aid of Dr. Hartman's free books and free correspondence a multitude of hopeless people are permanently cured of this most loathsome and stubborn disease every year. Anyone afflicted with catarrh should write Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O. Ask for free books or free advice, whichever you most need.
